Sheriff Blankenship was called to the home of Hugh Imes near Stecker, Friday evening to assist Dr. W. W. Kerley to accompany Mrs. Imes to County Judge Humes office where she was adjudged insane. She is well educated and uses good language. Her mind runs on the organization of societies to prohibit cruelty. She says that she is the president of an anti-cruelty league. It is to prevent men from whipping their wives, cruelty to children and to keep women from having to work so hard together with raising their children.
